Please provide an explanation of your financial need:

The following questions should be answered by the 4-H'er:

1. Why do you want to attend this 4-H event and what do you hope to gain from the experience?

2. How have you given back to the community through 4-H? (This can be community service and/or giving back to your peers in your club)

3. After attending this event, how do you plan on using the skills and lessons you learned to take leadership in your club, community, county, etc.?

Upon returning from the event, you will need to share your experience at a club or 4-H Council meeting and/or lead an activity for your club (ice breaker, quick program, etc.). Failure to complete this step may prevent you from receiving future scholarships.
